

ERGO K860

NATURAL POSTURE, NATURAL TYPING.

Type more naturally with ERGO K860 – an advanced ergonomic keyboard that promotes a more relaxed typing posture – reducing wrist bending by 25% and offering 54% more wrist support.* The curved, split keyframe reduces muscle strain on your wrists and forearms, while the pillowed wrist rest offers comfort and the optimal ergonomic position. The adjustable palm lift feature keeps your wrists in a natural posture whether you're seated or standing. You'll confidently type on Perfect Stroke keys, crafted for precision and fluidity. And an integrated numpad, multi-device capabilities and two-year battery life ensure that you won't compromise performance for ergonomics.

*Compared to a traditional Logitech keyboard without palm rest.

May vary based on user and computing conditions.
